THE MUSEUM

Just steps away from the Champs-Élysées, immerse yourself in the refined world of Nélie Jacquemart and Édouard André, a passionate couple of collectors. Their sumptuous private mansion, built at the end of the 19th century and beautifully decorated, reveals an exceptional collection gathered throughout their lives.

EXHIBITIONS

SPLENDOUR OF THE BAROQUE Paintings from the Hispanic Society of America

26 March – 2 August 2026

This exhibition will present around forty works from the prestigious American institution, including paintings by Golden Age masters such as Velázquez, El Greco, and Zurbarán.

TINTORET

September 11, 2026 – January 24, 2027

The exhibition offers both a retrospective of his work and an exploration of his impact on 19th-century French painting, extending to the profound interpretation given by Jean-Paul Sartre.
